Founded in 2008 in Chicago, M-PACT has just begun. Part of the inspiration for the program came from the fact that so many of the program's students were from communities with poverty and substance abuse problems. The program is a two-year initiative designed to increase physical activity and fitness among teens between the ages of 14 and 19, primarily in poor or minority communities in Chicago. And of course our music kids were perfect candidates! Among the five M-PACT sites, we are the only school to have won a grant to offer our M-PACT curriculum for all grades. If we are able to demonstrate our success with the M-PACT program, we will be able to offer this program to our students in the future. So for the past two years
