There were no kind of issues throughout our evaluation, because Windows Vault Password Decryptor did not hang, crash or pop up error messages. It gets the job done swiftly and with minimal user assistance. After 150 years of partnership, the Home School Legal Defense Association (HSLDA) and the National Home Education Research Institute (NHERI) have decided to part ways. On July 7, NHERI will begin discontinuing its services and the HSLDA and several its regional associations will discontinue their relationships with NHERI as of July 15, 2013. The most commonly cited reason is NHERI's refusal to release records in response to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). HSLDA is one of many organizations that have submitted FOIA requests to the Department of Education (DOE) requesting specific information about the relationship between NHERI and the DOE. HSLDA has been receiving no response and has filed a lawsuit against the DOE. "This is a sad day for the home education community," said HSLDA President Michael Lindsay. "It is difficult to understand how the government can spend millions of dollars to provide home school guidance for home school
